Reason for Allowance

1. Regarding claims 1-8, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a method of controlling how many data transmission units (DTUs) are processed by a device, the device processing both high priority DTUs and low priority DTUs, the method comprises the steps e) determining at an output stage of the device a number of DTUs output by the device in a given amount of time; f) transmitting the number determined in step e) to an input stage of the device; and g) changing a value of PCR based on the number determined in step e), in combination with other limitations, as specified in the independent claim 1.

Regarding claims 9-11, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a device for routing data transmission units (DTUs) from a source to a destination comprising a controller for controlling an input rate of the input port and for controlling an output rate of the output port; measurement means for measuring the output rate of the output port, the measurement means transmitting the output rate to the controller, wherein the controller adjusts the input rate based on the output rate, in combination with other limitations, as specified in the independent claim 9.

Regarding claims 12-17, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a method of allocating resource units between high priority tasks and low priority tasks, the method comprising the steps c) establishing a first upper limit to resource units to be requested for high priority tasks, the first upper limit being equal to the desire minimum number of resource units (x); and d) establishing a second upper limit to resource units to be requested for low priority tasks, the second upper limit being equal to the desired maximum number of resource units (y), in combination with other limitations, as specified in the independent claim 12.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
